Cartier International Tickets Application 2011

Sunday 24th July is this year's Cartier International Day, in association with the Hurlingham Polo Association, this is the world's greatest spectator polo day. The main highlight of the day is the afternoon match for the Coronation Cup, which features the very best English players against a 29 goal Brazilian team. The HPA, the sport's governing body, has yet to announce the home side's opponents for 2011, but with England able to field a 26-goal team, the crowd will be ensured a fantastic match.

Action on the field is not confined to the afternoon though. Talented and up and coming England players will take to the field at 11am to play for the Golden Jubilee Trophy. As the standard of polo is now so high in the UK, this game is the perfect opening for the England International later in the afternoon.

However, Cartier International Day is so much more than polo. All visitors can have the opportunity to visit the unique and extensive Retail Village which offers everything from a cooling glass of champagne to a luxury dog bed; from a beautiful polo painting to the very latest Audi.

And the fun does not stop with the umpire's final whistle. Attention moves to the Chinawhite where many guests can continue to celebrate a first-class day of sport and entertainment for a little while longer.
